Getting ONLY 5 Star Reviews for Google

12:39

Alright, so you bought all the citations, pbns, and niche edits, but you still need reviews, otherwise it won't convert.

Here's how to get ONLY 5 star reviews...

It goes without saying, but ask your friends to do you a solid, and give you some 5 star reviews, but don't leave a 5 star review without a comment... Make sure you ask them to include the target kw in the review. eg. if we're trying to rank for physiotherapy east vancouver, the review could go something like:

"Jacky has been my go-to for physiotherapy for years, and his new location in east Vancouver has easy-to-find parking" your friends are in Dallas TX, it'll work well for your local business servicing Dallas, just don't ask them to leave a review for a GMB in m'fcuking San Fransisco.

Always ask for reviews

Self-explanatory, but if you ask your customer how he felt about your service, and he responds positively, prompt him for a review.

“Oh if you don’t mind, could you leave a 5 star review on Google? It’ll really help our business”

To the customers you’re not sure about…(might not leave 5 star review)

Send them through a review funneler

- how it works is it goes to a landing page (not directly to Google), prompts them to rate your service out of 5
    - If 4 stars or higher, be like, please leave a review on Google for a chance to win xyz
    - If 3 stars or lower, send them to a contact form, and address their problems

Bribe your customers

Offer a gift, or something extra for a 5 star review that doesnt cost much eg. free drink on the house if you leave us a 5 star review, rough cost of a 5 star review should be $10.
